

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 2:20-00092

ANTOINE MILLER

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

In Charleston, on May 6, 2022, came the defendant, Antoine Miller, in person and by counsel, Paul E. Stroebel; came the United States by Ryan Blackwell, Assistant United States Attorney; and came Senior United States Probation Officer Justin L. Gibson, for a hearing on the petition to revoke the defendant's term of supervised release.<sup>1</sup>

The court informed the defendant of the alleged violations contained in the second amendment to the petition to revoke the term of supervised release, filed on February 17, 2022.<sup>2</sup> The court advised the defendant that, pursuant to Rule 32.1(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, he has the right to a hearing and assistance of counsel before his term of supervised release could be revoked. Whereupon the defendant conceded that the government would be able to prove by a preponderance of the evidence the conduct alleged in the second amendment to the petition. Accordingly, based on defendant's concession, the court found the charges were established by a preponderance of the evidence.

<sup>1</sup> This hearing was a continuation of the hearing held on February 1, 2022, wherein the court held the pending revocation proceeding in abeyance.

<sup>2</sup> At the hearing on February 1, 2022, the court found that Violations No. 2 and 3 in the original Petition, filed on December 9, 2021, and as amended on December 23, 2021, were established by a preponderance of the evidence.

The court found that the Guideline imprisonment range for the revocation of supervised release upon such grounds was six to twelve months. The court further found that the Guideline ranges issued by the Sentencing Commission with respect to revocation of probation and supervised release are policy statements only and are not binding on the court. Thus, the court stated that the relevant statutory provision is 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e) (3), which provides a maximum term of imprisonment of two years. Neither party objected to the Guideline range and statutory penalty as determined by the court.

The court found that there was sufficient information before the court on which to sentence defendant without updating the presentence investigation report.

After giving counsel for both parties and defendant an opportunity to speak regarding the matter of disposition, the court ORDERED, pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, that the defendant's term of supervised release be revoked, and that he be incarcerated for a period of twelve (12) months. Upon release from imprisonment, defendant will serve a term of supervised release of twenty-four (24) months. While on supervised release, defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime, and shall be subject to the Standard Conditions of Supervision adopted by this court. All previously imposed conditions of supervision remain in effect including the following special conditions:

- 1) The defendant shall participate in and complete either anger management, or batterer's intervention and prevention classes.
- 2) The defendant shall participate in a mental health evaluation and participate in any mental health treatment and counseling deemed necessary, until such time as the defendant is released from the program at the recommendation of the mental health professional.

Finally, the court reimposed the unpaid $100.00 special assessment.

In considering the proper term of imprisonment to be imposed, the court considered the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(1), (a)(2)(B), (a)(2)(C), (a)(2)(D), (a)(4), (a)(5), (a)(6), and (a)(7), as well as the Chapter 7 policy statements and concluded that the sentence imposed is an appropriate sanction for the defendant's breach of trust, taking into account the nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant. The court further concluded that the sentence imposed will provide adequate deterrence to criminal conduct and protect the public from further crimes of the defendant.

The defendant was informed of his right to appeal the court's findings and the revocation of his supervised release. The defendant was further informed that in order to initiate such an appeal, a Notice of Appeal must be filed in this court within fourteen (14) days. The defendant was advised that if he wishes to appeal and cannot afford to hire counsel to represent him on appeal, the court will appoint counsel for him. The defendant was further advised that if he so requests, the Clerk of court will prepare and file a notice of appeal on his behalf.

The defendant was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshals Service.

The Clerk is directed to forward a copy of this Memorandum Opinion and Order to counsel of record, the United States Marshal for the Southern District of West Virginia, and the Probation Department of this court.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 13th day of May, 2022.
